What To Plant In Fall

You might not think of fall as a great time for planting, but it is! The air is cool, the soil is warm, and your garden is just begging to put down new roots. There's less heat, fewer threats of disease and pests, and—for trees and shrubs—a chance to give roots a head start...

Department of Homeland Security announced a Federal Register notice to implement Keeping Families Together, a process for certain noncitizen spouses and stepchildren of U.S. citizens. We will begin accepting requests from eligible individuals for this process on Aug. 19, 2024. We are giving FREE quick consultations at (918) 582-9529, NOW for the NEW immigration program. Call us.

"Too often, noncitizen spouses of U.S. citizens – many of them mothers and fathers – live with uncertainty due to undue barriers in our immigration system. This process to keep U.S. families together will remove these undue barriers for those who would otherwise qualify to live and work lawfully in the United States, while also creating greater efficiencies in the immigration system, conducting effective screening and vetting, and focusing on noncitizens who contribute to and have longstanding connections within American communities across the country."
